

Privacy Policy

This Statement of Privacy applies to intltechventures.com and International Technology Ventures, Inc and governs data collection and usage. For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, unless otherwise noted, all references to International Technology Ventures, Inc. include intltechventures.com – hereinafter, collectively referred to as ITV. The ITV website is an information site. By using the ITV website, you consent to the data practices described in this statement.

Collection of your Personal Information

We do not collect any personal information about you unless you voluntarily provide it to us. However, you may be required to provide certain personal information to us when you elect to use certain products or services available on the Site. These may include: (a) registering for an account on our Site; (b) entering a sweepstakes or contest sponsored by us or one of our partners; (c) signing up for special offers or for download of information; (d) sending us an email message. To wit, we will use your information for, but not limited to, communicating with you in relation to services and/or products you have requested from us. We also may gather additional personal or non-personal information in the future.

Sharing Information with Third Parties

ITV does not sell, rent, or lease its customer lists to third parties. ITV may share data with trusted partners to help perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to ITV, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

ITV may disclose your personal information, without notice, if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on ITV or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of ITV; and/or (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of ITV, or the public.

Tracking User Behavior

ITV may keep track of the websites and pages our users visit within ITV, in order to determine what ITV services are the most popular. This data may be used to deliver customized content and tailored advertising within our communication to our customers whose behavior indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area.

ITV may use third party user engagement platforms which captures anonymized user activity for us to better our website in communicating our product updates, news, and industry information. User specific interest in product may also be observed and tracked for serving the user pertinent information. This may be through tracking cookies as well as services that provide user analytics.

Automatically Collected Information

Information about your computer hardware and software may be automatically collected by ITV. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times, and referring website addresses. This information is used for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the ITV website.

Use of Cookies

The ITV website may use “cookies” to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by your browser for a particular website. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell a web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize ITV pages, or register with ITV site or services, a cookie helps ITV to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as shipping, billing, or contact information. When you return to the same ITV website, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the ITV features that you customized.

If ITV uses cookies, you will have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the ITV services or websites you visit.

Links

This website may contain links to other sites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the content or privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements of any other site that collects personally identifiable information.

Security of your Personal Information

ITV secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. ITV uses the following methods for this purpose:

SSL Protocol : when personal information (such as name and communication preferences) is transmitted to our websites from your browser, it is protected through the use of encryption, such as Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) protocol.

We strive to take appropriate security measures to protect against unauthorized access to or alteration of your personal information. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the internet or any wireless network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, you acknowledge that: (a) there are security and privacy limitations inherent to the internet which are beyond our control; and (b) security, integrity, and privacy of any and all information and data exchanged between you and the ITV site cannot be guaranteed.

Children Under Thirteen

ITV does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under the age of thirteen. If you are under the age of thirteen, you must ask your parent or guardian for permission to use this website.

E-mail Communication

From time to time, ITV may contact you via email for the purpose of providing announcements, promotional offers, alerts, confirmation, surveys, and/or other general communication. In order to improve our Services, we may receive a notification when you open an email from ITV or click on a link therein.

If you would like to stop receiving marketing or promotional communications via email from ITV, you may opt out of such communications by opening an email and clicking on the unsubscribe link. Additionally, a person can contact us through email or phone to request being unsubscribed.

External Data Storage Sites

We may store your data on servers provided by third party hosting vendors with whom we have contracted.

Changes to this Statement

ITV reserves the right to change this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you about significant changes in the way we treat personal information by sending a notice to the primary email address specified in your account, by placing a prominent notice on our site, and/or by updating any privacy information on this page. Your continued use of the Site and/or Services available through this Site after such modification will constitute your: (a) acknowledgement of the modified Privacy Policy; and (b) agreement to abide and be bound by that Policy.
